2023 Internal Affairs Summary Report

During 2023, three (3) internal affairs complaints were lodged by citizens against members of the department. The disposition categories are:

- |                                |   |
|--------------------------------|---|
| 1. Sustained-                  | The investigation proved the allegation by a preponderance of evidence.   |
| 2. Exonerated-                 | The alleged incident did occur, but the actions of the officer were legal, proper and justified.  |
| 3. Not Sustained-              | The investigation failed to disclose sufficient evidence to prove or disprove the allegation.   |
| 4. Unfounded-                  | The alleged incident did not occur.   |
| 5. AdministrativelyClosed- | In some cases, the complaint or investigation is closed prior to reaching a disposition. An example would include a situation where a complainant voluntarily requests that a complaint be withdrawn. |

The dispositions of the 2023 complaints are as follows:

- Sustained- 1
- Exonerated- 2
- Not Sustained- 0
- Unfounded- 0
- Administratively
Closed- 0
- Open Investigations- 0

During 2023, five (5) investigations were conducted which stemmed from internal complaints filed within the organization. These internal complaints usually originate from a supervisor detecting officer performance deficiencies, a policy violation or an investigation of a motor vehicle crash involving an officer while on duty driving a department vehicle.

The dispositions of the cases are as follows:

- Sustained- 3
- Exonerated- 1
- Not Sustained- 1
- Unfounded- 0
- Administratively
Closed- 0
- Open Investigations- 0

In accordance with the reporting requirements outlined in the New Jersey Attorney General Guidelines governing Internal Affairs Policy and Procedures, there were no complaints where a fine or suspension of six (6) days or more were assessed to a member of the agency in the year 2023.
