REPORTS FROM OFFICIALS

Committeewoman Barbara Perkins, Liaison Environmental Advisory Committee and Recreation Environmental Advisory – Mrs. Perkins reported that the tree seedling give-away was a success. They gave out 75 of the 100 trees and hope to pass along the remaining 25 trees to Willingboro for their seedling give away this weekend.

Committeewoman Lauren Kremper, Liaison Board of Education and Recreation

BOE - Ms. Kremper reported no meetings since the last Committee Meeting.

PTO - Color-a-thon is coming up and Ms. Kremper encouraged participation.

The Bunny Breakfast was successful with approximately 150 children participating even though only a handful registered. The Recreation Committee estimated well and would like to thank Officer Jesse Lakraj for all of his assistance.

Committeeman Bill Belgard, Liaison Planning Board Committee

Planning Board – Mr Belgard reported no meetings since the last Committee Meeting.

He spoke about the Streets Ordinance and about how the traffic light at the corner of Warren St. and Woodlane Rd. was taken out again by a tractor trailer. He would like to see if there is a way to limit the truck traffic at that end of Woodlane Rd.

Mayor Michael Trainor, Liaison to Economic Redevelopment & EPAA

Economic Development - Mayor Trainor reported no meetings since the last Committee Meeting.

EPAA - Mayor Trainor reported on the success of Flag Football and spoke on the upcoming pep rally and also the championship games being played on the Philadelphia Soul field. He also spoke about the opening day parade from Magowan School to Memorial field on April 18th.
